

Linda J. Fisher

Vice President
Government/Public Affairs

Linda J. Fisher joined Monsanto in early 1995 as Vice President for federal government affairs. She represents the corporation on issues relating to agriculture, biotechnology, pharmaceuticals, environment, finance and trade.

Ms. Fisher was an environmental attorney for two years at the Washington, D.C. office for Latham & Watkins. Prior to that, she spent a decade at the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) where she held a number of high-level policy positions. She served as the Assistant Administrator for Prevention, Pesticides, and Toxic Substances as well as the Pollution Prevention Program and the Community Right to Know Program. She also served as Assistant Administrator for Policy, Planning and Evaluation.

From 1974 to 1980, Ms. Fisher worked in the House of Representatives as a legislative assistant and associate staff member of the House Budget Committee.

Ms. Fisher has an undergraduate degree from Miami University of Ohio, a Masters in Business Administration from George Washington University and a Juris Doctor degree from The Ohio State University College of Law.